Ramsey Sweis

CEO & Founder
Aqaba Technologies

Ramsey Sweis, CEO and founder of AQABA Holdings, a technologies based Management Company and AQABA Technologies, a Michigan based global web strategies, search marketing, Custom Software and Web Development Company since March 2004. Mr. Sweis is recognized World Wide as an expert in internet marketing, and related areas of Information Technology. On August 24, 2007, Mr. Sweis was offered a seat on the Automation Alley "International Business Center's" Advisory Council as council member and most recently on July 23, 2008 appointed as council member To Madonna University Council for International Education. Since May 2002 to January 2004, Mr. Sweis served as Vice President of Search Engine Optimization Firm, Net Generation, Inc.

He also served as board member from January 2002 to March 2007 for Universal Communications Systems, Inc, a public company and continues to guide the Company's long-term growth. Universal Communications Systems, Inc is a Global Holding Organization with several diverse operational subsidiaries. Its range of activities include: Broadband Wireless Internet Provision, state of the art Water from Air production products, on a world wide basis, energy saving "solar industry", providing power and energy solutions and security products division. Prior to joining Universal Communications Systems, Inc in January 2002, Mr. Sweis has served as a member of the Board of public company World Wide Wireless Communications, a Global Wireless Internet Service Provider from May 1998 to January 2002. The company's business plan involved the acquisition and build out of substantial wireless frequency spectrum in the 2.5 to 2.7 GHz band (MMDS), especially in developing countries. During his tenure with the company, it was able to raise in excess of $12 million dollars and acquired rights to frequency spectrum in an additional 40 locations within the United States, as well as in Peru, Argentina, India, and Thailand. In October 2000 it commenced digital broadband wireless Internet service in Lima, Peru. He has had extensive experience in management and in the product design industry. From 1986 to 1998, Mr. Sweis has been a leader and developer of high performance teams by enabling, training and motivating team members. In the recent past he has provided computer and engineering services to General Motors and Chrysler Corporation and Tier One level vendors.