

Vineet Katial

Chairman & Managing Director
Krores Limited

Mr. Katial is a serial entrepreneur with over 20 years of work experience, focused on financial services, international business and software. Prior to forming Krores, he was the Co-founder and COO of Janeeva, where he played a leadership role in creating the Outsourcing Relationship Management industry. He is an acknowledged thought leader in the international prepaid and mobile payments arena and is invited to speak at various financial service conferences, to help shape the role of such products in emerging markets. Prior to this venture, he was a CEO of a boutique consulting company where he helped develop outsourcing strategy for various Fortune 100 clients. As a pioneer in the offshore arena, Mr. Katial was the Founding Member and CIO for one first offshore BPO Company. He helped the company become on the largest offshore BPO Company. After its sale to ICICI Bank, Firstsource has remained in the top 5 BPO companies and continues to grow. He has been the CEO of an offshore BPO company and managed various large scale international ventures. He has extensive experience within the banking and financial services industry and has worked with various Fortune 100 banks such as Bank of America, JP Morgan Chase, American Express and Wells Fargo. His was also an Executive Director at Teletech and held various management roles with KPMG.

He is the Chairman of Krores Limited, serves on the Board of Directors of Voice-Resume, Executive Panel for Globalization of Services at University of Michigan/WDI, Charter Member for The Indus Entrepreneurs and Board of Advisors for Janeeva Inc.

He has an MBA from University of Colorado and Bachelor of Commerce (Honors) from Sri Ram College of Commerce, Delhi University.

